

BRIDGE

Balancing long-term care benefits
with capital preservation

JANELLE

Age: 71

Retirement assets

Hypothetical example:

$1 million in retirement accounts

$250,000 in savings earmarked for potential health-related expenses

Concerns:

- Has witnessed the struggles of friends who assist aging parents and doesn't want to burden her children to provide care or money for age-related expenses later in life
- Would like to maintain her estate for her children and grandchildren

Bridge premium: $100,000

From savings

Underwriting class	Preferred
Coverage Ratio election*	150%
Initial Benefit Base	$150,000

*Selected level based on monthly benefit necessary to cover anticipated aging expenses to maintain independence

15 years later — claim submitted

After 15 years, Janelle develops a condition requiring long-term care services. At age 86, she is no longer able to perform two of six activities of daily living. She files a claim and a plan of care from her doctor.

Benefit Base at claim	$201,880
Monthly benefit	$3,365
